Carmel Work Center Notes

By Carol Tindell

Part of the work of the Carmel Work Center is to help and encourage the craftsmen of the Peninsula to develop new designs for products. Recently two new products were developed and are now in our shops. One is a Boudoir Utility Tray to keep all your odds 'n ends in. There is a separate compartment for all those little items that are so necessary--bobby pins, safety pins, mascara, lipsticks, etc. (that etc. covers a multitude of things). This should be high on your list for it keeps everything in place and EASY TO FIND.

The second new product is a very clever design for a soap dish made by Mr. Otto of the Barnard Studios. It is designed so that the soap is in a suspended position...consequently you always have a clean soap dish. Both of these items are very inexpensive...and good gift ideas.

Glen Minshall's Pansy Bowls have been going out of our shops like the proverbial pan cakes. We thought we'd just mention them as they seem to be a must on every flower arranger's list...so, if you haven't seen them yet, come in soon.

Our jewelry selection for Christmas gifts is really beautiful...we're bragging again, but it's true. In fact, if you should ask us, there isn't a thing in our shops that isn't exceptionally beautiful. Just step in and see for yourself...the Carmel shop is in the Seven Arts Court on Lincoln Street, and the Pebble Beach Shop is, naturally, at Pebble Beach.

A week from tomorrow (November 25) a new art gallery opens in Carmel. It is called "The Artists' Guild of America, Inc." and is located on Monte Verde at Ocean, in the former quarters of the Emmelen Handcrafts Shop (which has moved upstairs).

SCHERMERHORN-TOWNSEND ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Mary Ellen (Mimi) Townsend to Lieutenant Dale Vernon Schermerhorn was announced at a cocktail party given Saturday by Miss Townsend's parents, Colonel and Mrs. George L. Townsend.

FAMILY MEMBERS AND FRIENDS VISIT MR. AND MRS. HUGHES

Two couples from Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Taplin, were honorees recently at a party given in the Carmel Woods home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hughes. The Paynes have built a home on San Antonio in Carmel which they plan to use for weekend visits.

Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were visited by their twin daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Carty of Santa Clara and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Alsop of Salinas; also by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Hughes. Some fifty guests were invited to be present with them for a party at which Mrs. Claud Faw helped the hosts receive.

THANKSGIVING DAY LESSON-SERMON

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

For this year's Thanksgiving Day service to be held in all Christian Science churches in the United States, the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon will be taken from Psalms: "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing" (107:21, 22).

Included among the citations comprising the sermon will be the following:

The Bible: "And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Revelation 7:13, 14).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker

Eddy: "Christian Science awakens the sinner, reclaims the infidel, and raises from the couch of pain the helpless invalid. It speaks to the dumb the words of Truth, and they answer with rejoicing" (p. 342).

The Christian Science Church in Carmel is located at Monte Verde and Fifth. The service will be held at 11 o'clock, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS SET FOR ONE BLOCK

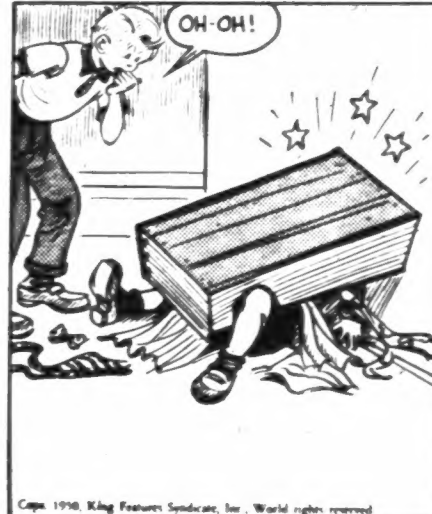

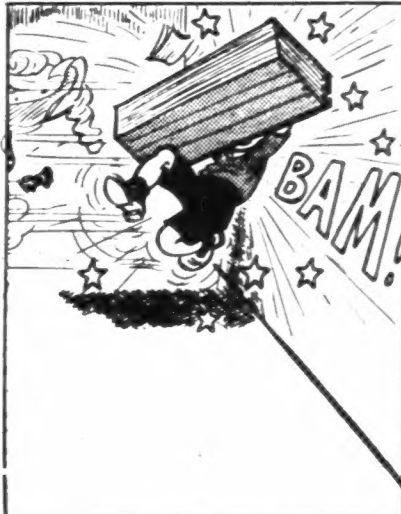

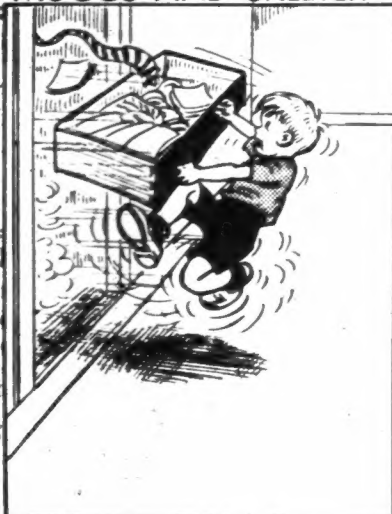

Christmas decorations, including lighted trees, strings of lights, holly, etc., are planned for the block on the south side of Ocean between Lincoln and Monte Verde. All shops are participating and call themselves (according to one informant) "The Third Ward Chowder and Benevolent Society." Arrangements are under the direction of Dick Sumner, one of the shop owners.

It is expected that other shop owners will get together in their blocks and plan similar cooperative arrangements. A suggestion has been made that a contest be held to award prizes for the best block decorations.

Here's a question we'd like you to ask, next time you drive in for gas: "What do you think of Oldsmobile's 'Rocket' Engine?" Chances are, the attendant will tell you, straight from the shoulder, that the "Rocket" tops its field in smoothness, quietness, and quick-acting power. He'll probably explain that the "Rocket's" high-compression design gives it that thrilling response. We're sure he'll tell you that the "Rocket" uses gasoline available everywhere today—and makes every gallon go a long way! Your gas station man knows his engines, and he knows motor car values, too. PIANO, VIOLIN CONCERT AT MUSICAL ARTS CLUB SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Peninsula music lovers will again have the opportunity of hearing two talented young musicians at the Musical Arts Club concert to be presented at 3:15 Sunday afternoon at the Carmel Woman's Club.

The program will feature Miss Janice Carlander, violinist, and John Hunt, pianist. Miss Carlander, a sophomore at San Jose State College where she is majoring in music, is a student of Professor W. Gibson Walters and plays first violin in the San Jose State College Symphony and the San Jose Civic Symphony. She has been a member of the Carmel Bach Festival orchestra for the last two years and is leader of the college string quartet. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Carlander of San Jose. Miss Carlander, who has appeared in numerous California cities in recital, will be accompanied by Miss Helen Kimzey, also a major in music at San Jose State.

Mr. Hunt, a student of David Alberto of Carmel, is a graduate of Monterey Union High School and was one of the winners in the San Jose Music Festival for high school students. Besides studying at Julliard School of Music in New York, Hunt studied at the Santa Barbara Music Academy under Boulle Stravinsky, son of the famed Igor Stravinsky. Mr. Hunt has also appeared on radio programs in the Peninsula area and plans his concert debut shortly.

The program is open to club members and interested music lovers. Guest cards may be obtained at the door at no cost.

"HARVEY" WILL BE FIRST OFFERING OF CIVIC DRAMA FESTIVAL

"Harvey," the play by Mary Chase about Elwood P. Dowd and his invisible companion, the six-foot rabbit, will be the first in a series of three plays to be presented in the Monterey Peninsula Civic Drama Festival this season.

The festival, sponsored this year by the Peninsula 20-30 and Optimist Clubs, will also include productions of "I Like It Here" and "Born Yesterday"—all with professional casts of Actors Equity Players. The performance of "Harvey" is scheduled for Monday, December 18, at the Pacific Grove High School.

The play was an immediate and unqualified success when it opened in 1944 in New York, where it ran for five years with a total of 1,775 performances. The role of Dowd was at various times played by Frank Fay, James Stewart, James Dunn, Rudy Vallee and Joe E. Brown. Robert Paquin, noted Broadway actor, and for several years a member of the Civic Drama Guild companies, will undertake this important part in the Civic Drama Festival production.

As in other cities, a sellout is expected for the local performances, and the sponsors recommend ordering tickets early. All seats are reserved and tickets may be purchased at the Browse Around Music Shop in Carmel, Bud Giles' in Pacific Grove, and Abinante's or Wurzman's in Monterey. Members of the 20-30 and Optimist Clubs are selling them also.

ARMED FORCES YMCA HOSPITALITY BALL DECEMBER 2

A SERVICE FOR DISCRIMINATING BUYERS

Please say you saw it in the SPECTATOR...That will help me have a better column. --Betsy Abbott.

IN THE HEART OF CARMEL VALLEY next to the Farm Center there's an antique dealer, MRS. ADA ROXBURY who has her little shop on the same property as her home. Mrs. Roxbury is new to Carmel Valley, but she comes to it with a background of travel and of having lived with old, beautiful things. In her shop I saw cupboards bulging with these treasures: old brass, pewter pots, iron, old price-less Wedgwood tureens with ladles, a collection of teapots (old soft Chelsea Meissen), old glass (press and colored), and elegant silver wine coolers that make perfect coffee servers. There are loads of old wall plates, including Royal Worcester, some Ironstone, Staffordshire cottage vases, a Dresden clock and quantities of old Flowing Blue. MRS. ROXBURY also has a fine collection of old silver, picture frames and very choice (and in splendid condition) Victorian chairs and other choice pieces of furniture. So, you home-makers and collectors--why not drive out to this enchanted spot and visit MRS. ROXBURY at her new location next to the Farm Center.

YOU HAVE AT YOUR FINGERTIPS an endless variety of lovely color combinations when you use the Match-a-Chip Color Chart of the sensational synthetic rubber paint, Satin Luminol, which the CARMEL PAINT AND WALLPAPER COMPANY, at 6th and Junipero, carries in its stock. You can easily arrive at richly satisfying decorating schemes for any of your rooms. It's lots of fun, too, and remember that this paint (which will not chip because of the rubber base) is scrubbable, safe, quick, economical and beautiful.

LET'S HOLIDAY AT THE HOLIDAY INN! You Peninsulites should recommend it to your friends or send your overflow house guests there--magnificent view, a stone's throw from the Carmel beach. Moderate prices at this personal, intimate, "pension" type hotel. You, along with the hotel guests, are invited to stop in at any time for breakfast or dinner which are served daily except Tuesdays. Fried chicken is a specialty for only $1.85, and it can be taken out in box lunches if the vacationers wish to explore the scenic coast line on their own or have a picnic lunch on the beach. Lunch is not a regular feature, but can be prepared if notice is given in the morning. Your guests will have all the advantages of being your guests and still maintaining their privacy. Three blocks from the local bus stop.

This attractive hotel is on Bay View Avenue and Martin Way on Carmel Point. The rooms are spacious, immaculate and very inviting with their candlewick spreads and drapes. The drawing room, the dining room, and the card room are beautifully done in a combination of modern and period pieces. THE HOLIDAY INN has all the charm of old Carmel with modern decor. It is one of Carmel's older and better known hotels, and the only one that is so conveniently close to the Carmel beach.

HERE'S THE FROSTING FOR YOUR WINTER OUTFIT--a small box or pouch handbag in imported New Zealand scuff-resistant lamb skin or suede, and in a double woven cotton glove fabric, from $4.95 to $5.95. These handbags are really neat. They have the smart details and craftsmanship that mean so much in an accessory. If you are smart, you'll run right away to PUTNAM AND RAGGET, on Ocean and San Carlos, and grab one of these little buys for your wardrobe.

BLACK LACE WITCHERY in provocative little blouses are being shown by HARRIET DUNCAN, at Eighth and Lincoln. When you wear one of these blouses you will be utterly feminine. With them you can wear a black velvet skirt that HARRIET DUNCAN has in three styles--the pencil slim, the inverted pleat (which is a little dressier) and the pencil slim with cute pockets. With the added excitement of a jeweled or rhinestone-trimmed Calderon belt you'll have compliments flying your way. So--if you're out for a man, or out to please your own man, black lace witchery cunningly designed in blouses is one sure way to win.

COME INTO MY PARLOR, SAID THE SPIDER TO THE FLY... and look at my needlework. In Paris, Doris Dodson found inspiration in French needlework, in the beautiful French embroideries which are used to cover the whole cloth of glamorous dresses. America could do as well, Doris Dodson decided. As a result, the satin-stitched taffetas now at MARIANNA'S, of course, are some of the most stunning and unusual dresses for important occasions you've ever seen! Just imagine the look of taffeta with a texture of satin stitching...a covering lacework of embroidery on taffeta...in stripes, in checks, in circles. The whole cloth is first embroidered, then draped and fashioned to flatter party-minded juniors. Don't put off seeing these dresses, which sell at the pin money price of $19.95. And juniors or teenagers, please tell MARIANNA'S, of course, at 434 Alvarado, that you learned of these party dresses through Betsy Abbott, because the management is running a little test to see how good this ad is.

WHY HONEYMOON AWAY FROM HOME when the mecca of honeymooners is THE HIGHLANDS INN, just four miles from Carmel on the most beautiful, spectacular section of our coast line? It's nice if you have your own car, but if you should come from out of town by plane or by train, the management will be glad to meet you at the airport or railroad station. There is no place in all the world that is more beautiful or has more to offer. This hotel has private, secluded cottages with fireplaces. You need not take a long, expensive trip that may upset the early marital budget. There is a warm, hospitable dining room and small bar high up among the trees overlooking the new swimming pool, with the surf breaking far below the cliffs.

Reservations are also invited from local groups to use the comfortable facilities of THE HIGHLANDS INN. Arrangements may be made for group luncheons, dinner parties or the use of the lobby, the largest on the Peninsula, for receptions and teas.

And at this special time of the year, lest you forget, you may make your reservations now for the entire family for a traditional Thanksgiving dinner which will be served from 2 to 7 P.M.

TWO HUNDRED KIDS GOT TOGETHER Tuesday night to honor Fred Godwin, who is largely responsible for the existence of the Carmel Youth Center. Unbeknownst to Mr. G., the kids had commissioned Carmel artist Leslie Emory to paint a portrait of the Center's benefactor. Emory offered his services free of charge, but the youth of Carmel said no, they wanted to do something for Mr. Godwin--so an approximate 50-50 plan was reached.

In the top photograph, Godwin comes face to face with himself. With him are C.Y.C. officers Fritz Abplanalp, Donna Douglas, Bob Updike, Diane Lewis, Bill Daniels, Audrey Campbell and Henry Overin.

The second photograph shows Godwin as he met (for the first time) the artist, who had painted the portrait from photographs and from watching the subject at a distance during recent football games. With them are Marie and Jimmy Griffiths, Y.C. choir directors.

youngsters between supper and bedtime. The child can play these himself. LIAL'S MUSIC SHOP has a complete collection of children's classics, such as Mother Goose Land, Little Black Sambo, Uncle Wiggly and Peter and the Wolf. These favorite records are available in all the three speeds, 45 RPM, 33 1/3 RPM Long Playing and 78 RPM Regular. These records are not only instructive and inspiring to the children but are also very relaxing to the parents. Playing records in the morning is a way of getting your child awake and interested in dressing by himself. So, parents, be wise and understanding and get some of these records now from LIAL'S MUSIC SHOP, either in Carmel on Ocean Avenue and Monte Verde, or in Monterey at 488 Alvarado.

FOR THOSE WHO WANT A MERE WHIFF of a bra in the softest line possible, the RETTA CALHOUN CORSET SHOP at 108 Webster now has custom-made bras in soft Alencon laces and double faced satins. These garments are the closest thing to French laces that are available now. They are suitable for any figure, for any size including the Junior Bra figure. Mrs. Retta, with her 30 years experience, is undisputedly the person to help you choose your foundation garments.

WHY DON'T YOU STEP OUT THIS SEASON in a shortie with a dual personality? Wear it belted over dresses--let it flare over your suits. You'll love it twice as much, for it's really two new coats. THE COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP in Monterey has many versions, at prices that spell double value ($17.95 to $39.95). These gay colored shorties (copper, lemon, lime, white, kelly green, gray, navy, mustard and red) can swing along now through the holidays and still remain "tops" later on in the spring. So, if it's a wise buy you are looking for, hasten to THE COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP at 489 Alvarado in Monterey and look over their many smartly-styled shorties in cashmere and wool.

TURKEY TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The Second Annual Beach Club Turkey Tennis Tournament is scheduled for 10:30-12:30 Sunday, November 19. The event is planned to coincide with the opening of the two new exhibition tennis courts which have just been added, making five courts at the Beach Club now.

Fifteen mixed doubles teams have already entered, according to Mrs. Kent Parrot, chairman, who is being assisted by Mrs. Edison Holt, Mrs. Clarissa Mitchell and John B. Geisen.

The tournament champions win a turkey, runner-up a loaf of bread, third, lettuce, etc., but they don't take their prizes home. Following the matches the prizes are consumed at a gala luncheon for all the contestants.

MUSIC TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION
SET UP BRANCH

The members of the Monterey County Branch of the Music Teachers' Association of California met in the Patio Room of the Casa Munras on Sunday, November 12, for a fellowship dinner, the installation of officers, and the presentation of the branch charter. State officers from San Francisco and club members from Santa Cruz branch were guests.

Mr. Samuel Rodotsky, president of the Music Teachers' Association of California, commended the new branch on the fine spirit evidenced by the members and spoke concerning the goals of the association. He mentioned its efforts to improve the standards of the private teacher, the interest in promoting legislation which would benefit such, and the encouragement given to continue study or to take refresher courses.

In a short ceremony, Mr. Rodotsky installed the first officers of the Monterey County Branch. They are Mrs. Edward (Irene) Graham, president; Mrs. Ralph Weston, vice-president; Jack Loren Lindesmith, recording secretary, and Mrs. Kathryn Lansdowne, financial secretary.

MOTHERS' CLUB
PLANS TEA AND DOLL BAZAAR

Husbands and fathers are expected to turn out en masse at the Silver Tea and Doll Bazaar to be held at the Carmel Woman's Club on Sunday afternoon, December 3, from 2 to 6 o'clock.

The Mothers' Club of the Carmel Mission chose a Sunday afternoon for the purpose of getting the men out so that they may see what keeps their wives so busy during the school year. At the moment, the wives are dressing dolls, which will be displayed in the windows of the Peninsula shops from now until the day of the tea. Dolls not sold on December 3 will be auctioned. Proceeds of the doll sale and the tea will be turned over to the Sisters of the Carmel Mission for the benefit of children who attend the school.

Mrs. Shelburn Robison, who is in charge of the doll bazaar, has arranged for the special doll collections of Mrs. Emma Zampatti, Mrs. Magdel Rose, Mrs. George McGee and Mrs. Antonia Bach Thompson, to be on display at the club on the day of the tea. There will be other interesting dolls on view, such as a Toni doll, a 200-year-old carved wooden doll, a replica of the famous singer Jenny Lind (said to have been discovered in an old trunk belonging to the singer), a group of Persian Peris, and a doll made in a bomb shelter at the height of the London blitz. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Kenneth White is general chairman of the silver tea and Mrs. Roman Neumann is president of the Mothers' Club.

CARMEL VALLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT RE-DEFINED

At the urging of Carmel Valley Property Owners Association a portion of Carmel Valley (on the south side of the Valley Road, from the Morse Ranch through Robles Del Rio) has been included in the Monterey Union High School District. For some years this area has been under the King City High School District, although no students attended the King City School because of the lengthy distance involved.

The action was taken by the Monterey County Board of Supervisors on Monday. There was minor opposition from some residents who wished to hold up the proceedings until a change was made to make provision for students who might wish to attend the Carmel High School. The action Monday will not prevent a future change in redistricting to provide for those wishing to use the Carmel school.

way Patrol blamed the high pedestrian accident rate on the longer hours of darkness, poorer visibility and preoccupation on the part of many pedestrians.

"Remember, when you step off the curb you are in danger," the Patrol declared. "Keep alert, cross streets only at intersections and obey traffic signals. When walking on country roads, wear or carry something light-colored, and above all, walk against oncoming traffic, not with the stream of cars."

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Mrs. Francis Foraker, acting chairman of the Monterey Peninsula Republican Women's Club, wishes to express her appreciation to members who assisted at headquarters and precinct headquarters, during the recent election.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S WHO IS IT?

There are probably few people in Carmel who don't know this week's "Who Is It?" subject--by sight, at least. He's Cecil Moore Smith, a resident of Carmel since 1938. Carmelites know him as Pop Smith.

A long book could be written about the places he's been and the things he's done, but briefly the facts are these:

Born: London, England, May 29, 1875, son of Herbert Jewett Smith and Emily Smith. Education: London; Konigliches Gymnasium, preparatory school in Neuwiedam-Rhine, Germany, between ages of 10 and 18; and finally, Great Yarmouth, England. Apprentice seaman on

"BEWARE THE IDES OF MARCH!" Pop Smith as the Soothsayer in the 1942 production of "Julius Caesar" at the Forest Theater. With him are Barbara Sitt and Erick Short.

Blue Anchor steamship line out of London at 18; paid company 100 pounds for 4-year apprenticeship--but returned to dry land after two and a half years of Capetown, Mozambique, Zanzibar, Suez Canal, Bombay, and Australia--reason: chronic seasickness. Came to United States to learn ranching on Boot Ranch near Denver, Colorado; stayed two years, one as apprentice, one as ranch hand at $30 a month. In 1897 to Tacoma, Washington, to stay with father who was then living in U.S. In 1898 joined cavalry outfit which fought as infantry in Spanish-American War; in the front lines in the Philippines as a private, returning to the U.S. after 18 months. Next, odd jobs in Tacoma for a year, during which time father died. Twenty months in the Marine Corps, with service on cruiser Philadelphia in such faraway places as Samoa and Pago-Pago, serving as orderly to his commander, Captain Seabree, and living ashore at Pago-Pago for one 10-month stretch. Discharged finally for--that's right, chronic seasickness.

Long series of towns and jobs--plus family that increased in size every now and then: Sacramento, with Southern Pacific Railway; for a few months, toy department in department store; then, making pancakes in window of Francis Murphy's Blue Barrel Restaurant for $4 a week and all the best steak he could eat; working as marker and distributor in Sacramento laundry. Trek to Tacoma--no job, so back to Sacramento and the laundry.

Married: March 7, 1905, to Luella Emma Williams of Sacramento. In 1908, San Francisco, the Emporium and the earthquake, Pop working as driver of one-horse delivery rig and wife working in manager's office. Living near 7th and Mission (San Francisco, not Carmel) when quake struck. Havoc. Saved landlady's sewing machine. Went to city hall and waited, trying to eat raw eggs and drinking beer (no water available). Tried to get milk for hungry fox terrier (no milk available). Walked to Richmond district to stay with wife's cousin. Wife sat at piano and played "The Burning of Rome" as city went up in flames. What else could you do? Next day, Oakland, and from there to Grass Valley and another laundry for quite a while.

Baby on way, so back to S.F. and still another laundry. Grace Mary ("and how she hates that") arrived January 7, 1907. Laundry strike. Eggs $1 a dozen. So: Tacoma, with wife and baby. George (now a Carmel Valley resident) arrived January 22, 1908. Frank (who died when 10) followed on September 11, 1911, at Port Townsend, Washington.

Back alone to S.F. looking for job, with wife, three children and canary following by boat. Laundry, again, and then laundry in Santa Cruz. Luella Emily May born August 30, 1913. Laundry, San Luis Obispo, after which a job with Union Oil Company, during which there was fire caused by cigarette (not Pop's) and things got pretty hot. Wife to S.F. for arrival of William Albert in 1918.

Luella Emma Williams Smith died January 19, 1919, in San Luis. After a while, with others caring for children, Pop enlisted in Overseas Replacement Depot, was put in Medical Corps at Angel Island receiving Station. Transferred to Baltimore, Md., ready to ship overseas, but, having change of heart about being so far from children, got discharged, and back to a series of jobs in S.F. and vicinity.

In 1926, fell off 30-foot oil tank in Martinez, broke back, went to the hospital for seven weeks, wore brace for 14 months. Back to S.F. and more odd jobs. Came to Carmel as result of weekend trip with daughter Luella and her husband, September 19, 1938. Slipped on rocks, went to bed for 10 days, got up, liked Carmel--and stayed.

Son Bill, sergeant in Marine Corps, lost on Japanese prisoner-of-war ship sunk by U.S. October 24, 1944. Had been taken prisoner at fall of Corregidor. Pop presented with posthumously-awarded Silver Star medal.

Pop known far and wide as amateur photographer (sole equipment: Brownie camera). Subjects include around 800 local dogs, many local people, and Carmel, London and Wales. Pop also known far and wide as amateur thespian, having appeared in many productions of local theater groups.

Took flying trip to England and Wales in 1947, visiting niece, four great-nieces and one great-great niece. Called cousin, 80-year-old Sir Rudolph Smith, on telephone, saying, in proper English, "This is your cousin from Amedica, Cecil (Sessil) Smith." Sir Rudolph too old to be really interested.

Pop lives in "Pop's Penthouse," Seventh between Dolores and San Carlos. Very airy up there, with fine view of what's going on in backyards of surrounding area. Twenty-six steps up and down, which is probably what keeps Pop in his always spry condition.

"THE CHISELERS" HAVE BEEN IN TOWN. The Pine Inn was host last week to a unique organization of businessmen called The Chiselers. Most of the members are from Los Angeles and they meet once a month to play golf, usually on different courses in California and nearby states. They made the trek here to play at Pebble Beach and Cypress Point--their 37th tournament. While here a Calcutta Pool was held, amounting to over $14,000. There are about 40 members of the club.

200 NEW STUDENT OFFICERS TO GENERAL LINE SCHOOL

The Bureau of Naval Personnel in Washington, D.C. has directed the opening of a new indoctrination school for Naval Reserve officers in Monterey. It has been announced by Captain Thomas J. Casey, commanding officer of the Navy General Line School.

The school will bring approximately 200 additional student officers to Monterey in January for an eight-weeks' course at the General Line School. About half the officers who will compose the group are former enlisted men with the Naval Reserves who have been granted commissions. The other half of the group will consist of officers commissioned directly from civilian life.

Tasty food served either at counter or in booths. The food is reasonably priced and the restaurant conveniently open every day including Sundays, from 7 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

COMMUNITY CHEST REACHES 50 PER CENT

This week the annual campaign for funds for the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest stands at just better than 50 per cent of its goal of $72,000.

The campaign is going well, G. Faunce Whitcomb, campaign chairman, said, although some of the returns are tardy in coming in.

"We have not yet heard from some of our largest areas," Whitcomb said, "but we expect them to be as last year when the returns are made."

"We who live on the Monterey Peninsula are lucky," he said. "We are living in one of the most delightful places in the entire country. Our agencies form the strongest bulwark we have against the rising tide of juvenile delinquency; we must not let them down."
